

G20

High-level Symposium on Aging and Financial Inclusion (GPI Forum)

Organized by: Government of Japan, GPI, and Nikkei Inc.

Media Partner: Financial Times

Date: June 7 2019, 9:00~16:20 (Registration starts at 8:30)

Venue: Room Ho, Hotel New Otani, Tokyo

The number of seats for the public: 150

9:00-9:10 Opening Remarks Mr. Taro Aso, Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of Finance and Minister of State for Financial Services

9:10-9:20 Keynote Speech Mr. Ángel Gurría, Secretary General of OECD

9:20-9:30 Keynote Speech Dr. Kristalina Georgieva, CEO of World Bank

9:30-10:30 Session 1: Setting the Scene - Facing the "Age of Aging"

Aging is a global phenomenon which will only accelerate in the coming decades. It is an especially pressing issue for developing countries, which are aging the fastest. This introductory session will provide an overview of, and key facts on, aging globally, including vulnerabilities facing the elderly.

Panel Discussion
Dr. Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, Director-General of World Health Organization (Video Message)
Ms. Michèle Bocoz, Assistant Director-General and Director-General Envoy for Multilateral Affairs of World Health Organization
Dr. David E. Bloom, Clarence James Gamble Professor of Economics and Demography, Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health
Dr. Kiyoshi Kurokawa, Professor Emeritus of the National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies
Mr. Mike Mansfield, Program Manager of Retirement Research of the Aegon Center for Longevity & Retirement
Moderator
Mr. Hiroyuki Kotake, Senior Staff Writer and Editorial Writer, Nikkei Inc.

10:50-11:50 Session 2: Variety in Life and Inclusion in Approach - How to View the Complexity of Aging Issues

The challenges facing the elderly vary significantly, including by gender, health status, cognitive and physical abilities, whether they live alone or with family, in a rural area or in a city, and so forth. Multi-sectoral and multi-layered approaches have been adopted by relevant stakeholders to address the needs of a diverse elderly population. This session will include an extensive discussion of how to identify and approach aging issues, and suggest possible financial solutions by inviting distinguished speakers from various sectors, including leading gerontologists and medical scholars.

Panel Discussion
Dr. Pinchas Cohen, Professor of Gerontology, Medicine and Biological Sciences, Dean, University of Southern California Leonard Davis School of Gerontology
Dr. Jin Narumoto, Professor of Medicine, Kyoto Prefectural University of Medicine
Mr. Surya P. Kolluri, Managing Director of Bank of America Merrill Lynch
Mr. Toshio Morita, President of Nomura Securities Co., Ltd.
Moderator
Ms. Flore-Anne Messy, Head of Financial Affairs Division of OECD

12:50-13:00 Keynote Speech Mr. Haruhiko Kuroda, Governor of the Bank of Japan

13:00-13:30 Session 3: Fire Side Chat - "100-Year-Life" and Finance

Given greater longevity, it is projected that there will be more countries welcoming people living a "100-Year-Life". What changes and impacts will individuals and enterprises face in the era of centenarians? This session will invite co-author of the best-selling book the "100-Year-Life", Dr. Lynda Gratton, to give a brief speech with a focus on the role that finance will play.

Speaker
Dr. Lynda Gratton, Professor of London Business School
Moderator
Ms. Gillian Tett, Chairman Editorial Board, Editor-at-large, US Financial Times

13:30-13:40 Keynote Speech Ms. Masako Wakamiya, Japanese IT Evangelist

13:40-14:40 Session 4: The Potential of a Longevity Economy - Shifting thinking from an "Aging Time Bomb" to a "Longevity Dividend"

While concerns have been raised about the negative effects of aging on society, global aging could be a great opportunity for businesses and economic growth. In particular, emerging "elderly-friendly/inclusive" technology has helped include many elderly people despite fears of a "digital divide". This session will highlight opportunities from longevity, through the introduction of pioneering activities and efforts.

Panel Discussion
Dr. Olivia S. Mitchell, Professor of Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania
Dr. Michael W. Hodin, CEO of Global Coalition on Aging
Mr. Recaredo Arias, President of the Global Federation of Insurance Associations
Mr. Justin Derbyshire, CEO of HelpAge International
Moderator
Mr. Camilo Tellez-Merchan, Head of Research and Innovation, Better Than Cash Alliance

15:00-15:10 Keynote Speech
Mr. Makoto Takashima, Chairman of Japanese Bankers Association

15:10-16:10 Session 5: Call to Action for the Upcoming Super-Aging World - How can the financial services industry help ensure financial inclusion?

What roles and actions can financial institutions and regulatory bodies be expected to play in a "super-aging world"? Informed by the discussions in the previous sessions, this session will invite various executives and leaders to share their experiences and thoughts on the topic of "future financial services and financial inclusion".

Panel Discussion
Mr. Toshihide Endo, Commissioner of the Japan Financial Services Agency
Mr. Roberto de Oliveira Campos Neto, Governor of the Central Bank of Brazil
Mr. Felix Hufeld, President of Federal Financial Supervisory Authority of Germany (BaFin)
Ms. Maria Jahrmann Bjerke, State Secretary at the Ministry of Health and Care Services of Norway
Moderator
Dr. Alfred Hannig, Executive Director of Alliance for Financial Inclusion

16:10-16:20 Video Message
Majesty Queen Máxima of the Netherlands, Honorary Patron of the GPI

Please note that the program is subject to change without prior notification.

About GPI

The Global Partnership for Financial Inclusion (GPI) is an inclusive platform for all G20 countries, interested non-G20 countries and relevant stakeholders to carry forward work on financial inclusion. It was established at G20 Seoul Summit. This year, Under the Japanese Presidency, the GPI has been discussing the challenges to financial services and possible responses in face of aging under the theme of "Aging and Financial Inclusion."

